Cornish Christmas - A Grass Valley Tradition! It was estimated that in the 1890s, over 60% of the population of Grass Valley, California was Cornish. So came the parade of "Cousin Jacks and Jennys" as they were known from Cornwall, England to the young mining fields of Nevada County.

Vendor Attire: In order to keep the feel of a Cornish Christmas we encourage vendors to bring the holiday spirit to their booth with holiday decorations and by wearing knitted scarfs, hats, long overcoats, shawls, capes, and boots. We would appreciate avoiding modern attire such as tennis shoes, jeans and bright colors.
